About the Care Quality Commission

We are an organisation called the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

Our job is to check if every care service is:

- Safe
- Effective (meaning it gives good results)
- Caring
- Responsive (meaning it meets people's needs)
- Well-led (meaning it is managed well).

We then give the service ratings (or scores) of:

- Outstanding (meaning really good)
- Good
- Requires improvement (meaning it needs to get better)
- Inadequate (meaning it is poor).

About this service

Specialised Supported Living Service is service where personal care is provided in peoples own homes.

When we visited 89 people were supported in their own home by the service.

We checked this service on:

4, 5 and 6 December 2017 and 1 and 2 February 2018.

What we think about this service

Across all the areas we checked, we think this service is Good.

1. Is the service safe?

For the question, 'Is the service safe?', we think the service is Good.

Staff understood how to support people who felt upset. This helped people enjoy life better.

Staff and people talked when there was accidents to try and stop them happening again.

People were supported with their medicines safely.

2. Is the service effective?

For the question, 'Is the service effective?', we think the service is Good

Staff talked to doctors to make sure people got medical help when they needed it.

Staff had the training they needed to support people well.

3. Is the service caring?

For the question, ‘Is the service caring?’ we think the service is Outstanding

Staff knew people very well and made sure they had private and dignified support.

Staff knew the best way to help people communicate and make their own choices.

Staff ensured people; their relatives and sometimes advocates were able to speak up. This meant people received support how they wanted it.

4. Is the service responsive?

For the question, 'Is the service responsive?', we think the service is good

People were able to choose what activities they wanted to do.

People were always helped to keep in touch with their families.

People were listened to when they had concerns about their support.

5. Is the service well-led?

For the question, 'Is the service well-led?', we think the service is Good

Staff had meetings to talk about how things at the service could improve.

Managers checked people had a good service.

The managers were very good at listening to people to help improve the service for people.

What happens next?

We have asked this service to tell us how and when they will make things better. We will check they have done this.
